Housing: a basic human right

The Objects of Shelter SA Inc. are:

To promote and maintain the right of every person to access affordable, safe and secure long term housing that they identify as appropriate to their needs.

To promote and maintain the right of every person to housing of a quality which enhances people's health, well-being, dignity and life opportunities.

To promote the benefits of public and community housing in the community and all spheres of government.

To publish, research, collect or otherwise disseminate information on matters relating to the provision of housing, particularly for people on low to moderate incomes.

To establish, support, resource and coordinate non-government organisations and agencies with similar interests and objectives to the Association.

To promote opportunities for members of the community to access housing provision free from discrimination as a result of factors such as age, gender, ethnicity, health status or disability.

To promote and support consumer and community participation in decision making in relation to their housing and to promote access to avenues of appeal across all housing tenures.

To do all such other things as may be incidental to the attainment of these Objectives.
