10. Close of AGM

Meeting closed at 4.30pm.

Chair's Report

I am delighted to present the 2015 Shelter SA Annual Report, my first as the Chairperson of Shelter SA. Shelter SA's past year has been one of very positive outcomes and innovation. In a complex and rapidly changing housing environment, the Board set itself a key objective of better supporting and enabling our excellent operational team to perform their important work.

This has been a year of important achievements for Shelter SA, for which the credit and thanks go to our Executive Director, Dr Alice Clark and her colleagues, Amanda Taylor and Sean Sheehy. Alice, Amanda and Sean have delivered a year of new initiatives, positive outcomes and forged stronger networks with our key stakeholders. We were pleased to welcome Andris Banders to Shelter SA to undertake special project work (on a contract basis) in relation to some important emerging issues such as Social Investment Bonds.

This year Alice and her team have tirelessly informed, advised, and advocated on important housing issues. They have posted and shared stories and information about housing using social media to more effectively reach a broader audience. Over the past 12 months, the team has raised community awareness about housing and homelessness by producing radio shows, creating YouTube clips, conducting community forums and engaging with mainstream media. Most importantly they have worked closely with Minister Zoe Bettison and her staff, Shadow Minister Rachel Sanderson and other key supporters to help shape government housing policy and direction.

Shelter SA is strongly positioned to move ahead and the Board has made significant improvements to various aspects of organisational governance. We have re-structured our financial processes and appointed a new book-keeper and made budget provisions to resource some important special project work, and broaden the strategic focus of Shelter SA.

This year we welcomed new Board members Paul Astley, Fiona Kelly (Uniting Care Wesley Bowden) and Professor Andrew Beer (Centre for Housing, Urban and Regional Planning, University of Adelaide). They have contributed their skills which include governance, corporate business, financial expertise, community and housing sector experience and knowledge, and I am looking forward to continuing to work with them over the coming year.

I also acknowledge the invaluable contributions of the other Board members who have served during the past year. Firstly the continuing Board members, Deputy Chair and Secretary Patrick Kukla (Towards Independence, Salvation Army) and Treasurer Mel Blondell, who have both gone above and beyond the call of duty in their efforts to progress Shelter SA's strategic plan and provided me with their support and advice. Secondly I would like to acknowledge and sincerely thank my retiring Board colleagues, Sarah Watson (Uniting Communities), Paul Turnbull (Helping Hand) and Neil Murphy for their excellent contribution over recent years. All Board Members have willingly volunteered their time and expertise and have made important contributions during a very challenging period for Shelter SA and the broader housing sector. Each person has used their different experiences and insights to enhance the Board's governance and decision-making.

My final, but very important acknowledgement and thanks, goes to our State Government funding partners for recognising the important and innovative work that Shelter SA undertakes and for continuing to support and fund Shelter SA in a challenging funding environment.

I am confident that Shelter SA is strongly positioned to continue the important work it undertakes on behalf of those who support our organisation and to build on our achievements in the coming year.

Executive Director's Report

Out & About

During the past 12 months, Shelter SA has undertaken activities and achieved milestones in support of its Strategic Plan and fulfilled its Service Level Agreement with the Department of Communities and Social Inclusion.

In December 2014, the Reform of the Federation White Paper was published for comment. Shelter SA collaborated with and supported the National Shelter submission to the Federalism review, considering government roles and responsibilities in Housing and Homelessness. Shelter SA provided a briefing to the Minister for Social Housing on the Federalism review and participated in the Minister's consultation. Shelter SA submitted a report entitled "Decentralisation – helping or hurting?" which provides an outline of the details of the White Paper and includes a link to an opinion piece written by Adrian Pisarski, Executive Director of National Shelter.

Shelter SA has also been influential in responding to State Government's social impact bonds (SIBs) work and held two homelessness sector consultations during the first half of 2015 for interested stakeholders and organisations to explore how SIBs might be implemented in the homelessness sector. The supply of social and affordable housing must be addressed if we are serious about ending homelessness, so the focus of the SIBs forums involved exploring and discussing alternative sources of funding to fund community services traditionally paid for by governments. The first report is available here: SIB Consultation Report – Questions from the Field. Shelter SA has engaged key public servants from Premier and Cabinet and other stakeholders to progress their SIBs work.

During the middle of the year, the Shelter SA team implemented its Regional and Rural Engagement Strategy which involved visiting and engaging with housing agencies and housing support providers in regional areas to talk about the unique issues facing individuals, families and communities in these rural South Australian locations. A key objective for Shelter SA in the Strategy is to establish a range of collaborations and partnerships that can work towards addressing important housing and homelessness issues for our regions. Shelter SA acknowledges that the development and sustainability of regional housing supply and services capacity is an ongoing challenge therefore the importance of face-to-face meetings are invaluable in achieving this objective.

Community Led Development

Shelter SA has a strong interest in the supply of housing for people living on low incomes within current policy and funding constraints. We have built a strong network of relationships with a wide variety of stakeholders including our traditional member organisations, land-owners, developers, builders, architects, social investors and financial experts who are supporters of a concept called 'Community Led Development'. A number of principles underpin the CLD concept which include the development of newly constructed residential dwellings that do not require any government subsidy to provide a percentage of income-based rents and a market rate return on investment. The concept also taps into social and ethical investment opportunities, the sustainable use of land, medium density housing and excellence in design. Shelter SA is progressing the CLD concept on both a project and State level and looks forward to sharing more information about CLD with you in the near future.

Housing Matters – from voice to vision

Shelter SA's community radio program "Housing Matters" was a highlight throughout 2014 with the final show being broadcast on 27th November 2014. The radio program provided Shelter SA with yet another broad media platform to share its work and activities across the community of South Australia. Housing Matters achieved its strategic purpose and was an excellent tool to engage the community.

With the conclusion of the Housing Matters radio program, a new opportunity in the form of YouTube video production has commenced. Apart from producing regular Housing Matters ebulletins and disseminating to all Shelter SA supporters, we have been developing informative YouTube videos on housing and homelessness topics to share widely. Each video is available to watch via the Shelter SA website. We are increasingly utilising social media to raise awareness amongst the general public, gather support for ideas and policy change and conduct systems advocacy. Social media metrics are valuable in the evaluation of our work.

South Australian Edition of Parity Magazine

Parity is produced by the Council to Homeless Persons in Victoria and is the National homelessness sector magazine. Shelter SA is very excited to have been involved in the Reference Group for a South Australian edition due for release in November. I am pleased to have been a Guest Editor and Shelter SA has submitted a number of articles for the edition. We are also looking forward to the launch event, which we hope to hold at Parliament House.

Mobile Phone App. Can iHelp?

Our 2013 University of Adelaide Arts Intern Sean Sheehy's project involved investigating the production and implementation of a simple mobile App that connects young people to the right emergency services to ensure that they are not turned away from support services. Through the Fund My Community program, Shelter SA submitted its project idea for funding to develop and implement the App however, funding was unsuccessful. After further consultation with web and app designers and a marketing consultant, Shelter SA has applied for a grant through Community Benefit SA process and we are currently waiting to receive notification from them.

The rise in casual employment, short term rental contracts and a changing welfare system mean that young people are never too far away from the risk of homelessness. By using the phone and social networking sites instead of traditional street addresses, services are also able to stay in contact with young people and assist them on their road home. Data collected by the App could allow services, policy makers and researchers to see the impact of their work, and locate areas of need in the homelessness sector.

Reconciliation Day Event

To acknowledge and celebrate National Reconciliation Week 2015, Shelter SA staff attended the SA Museum, Aboriginal Antiquities tour to gain an appreciation for and improve personal knowledge about Aboriginal lifestyle and culture particularly prior to and during early settlement. Also as part of its commitment to the Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP), Shelter SA attended the NAIDOC week breakfast celebrations at the Convention Centre and all staff undertook a very informative and pro-active cultural training session with Craig Rigney of Kornar Winmil Yunti.

Homeless Connect Expo

The annual Homeless Connect: Homelessness, Health and Housing Expo was held at Whitmore Square on Thursday 15th October with over 600 people and 50 agencies actively taking part.

This year's Expo again used a local Aboriginal artists' painting as its masthead and poster. De Greer-Yindimincarlie of Yindi Artz provided this year's stunning artwork and Shelter SA thanks De for allowing us to use her artwork as part of Homeless Connect. Shelter SA also acknowledges and thanks the major sponsors of the Expo the Adelaide City Council and Housing SA for their continued support of the Expo.

Shelter SA continues to speak publicly on issues that are important to our members, advocating for evidence-based policies, legislation and service delivery, consultation in the community and participation in the development of public policy. We look forward to your continuing support.

Reconciliation Action Plan

I am pleased to present to you the Shelter SA Progress Report on our Reconciliation Action Plan.

Thanks

As you will know, Shelter SA is a very small organisation. Amanda Taylor, Stakeholder Engagement Manager, Sean Sheehy, Research Assistant and myself are the core staff who operationalise Shelter SA's work. I would like to sincerely thank both Amanda and Sean for their dedication and contribution to our small but high functioning team, which I believe has achieved so much more than the sum of its parts. Amanda's attention to detail and capacity for engaging our supporters has shown a marked growth in our strategic relationships and Shelter SA has benefitted from her expertise in conducting consultations and workshops. Sean's knowledge of technology and research skills combined with his enthusiasm has allowed us to be more effective with social media and increase the quality and quantity of our written work. I acknowledge and thank Andris Banders, who has conducted project work for Shelter SA and shared his wealth of experience and knowledge with us. I would also like to thank the Shelter SA Board for their support and good governance of Shelter SA.

Shelter SA is the peak body for housing in South Australia with membership consisting of a diverse range of stakeholders including government and non-government agencies, NGO's, private industry and interested individuals.

Shelter SA's RAP is a public statement and commitment to working towards housing and homelessness policy and service provision that improves access to housing and the reduction of homelessness for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Of the 16 actions, 14 have been achieved with the remaining 2 actions being reviewed and progressed throughout 2015-2017.

Shelter SA strives to continue its relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, engaging individuals and organisations in its work.

1. Relationships
Working Group continues to actively monitor RAP development, including implementation of actions and tracking progress.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The working group has met to review the existing RAP to ensure implementation of actions and to discuss progress to date.</li> </ul>

2. Respect

Engage employees and Board members in understanding the protocols around Acknowledgement of Country and Welcome to Country.

- Acknowledgement of Country and Welcome to Country conducted at Shelter SA Board of Management meetings and at Branch meetings.
- Welcome to Country acknowledgement at the Housing and Homelessness Connect EXPO 2013 and 2014.
- Shelter SA continues to foster strong relationships with Aboriginal contacts when a Welcome to Country acknowledgement is required.

Engage employees and Board members in cultural learning to increase understanding and appreciation of different cultural backgrounds in order to lay the foundation for other RAP actions to be achieved.

- Cultural awareness training for Shelter SA staff held in May and June (in-house). Shelter SA Board members are in the process of arranging for cultural awareness training.

Support all employees but particularly Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees to engage with their culture and community through NAIDOC Week events.

- Shelter SA staff are encouraged to attend cultural events in the local community. Relevant cultural newsletters, notifications and invitations are distributed via email to all staff.

Raise awareness amongst members and other stakeholders about cultural safety, specifically related to housing and homelessness.

- Cultural safety discussion for Shelter SA staff and invited Branch, members and stakeholders will be provided at a future date
- Information about RAPs is regularly promoted to stakeholders via Shelter SA e-Bulletins and other notifications. Information about and copies of the RAPs are available to access and download via the Shelter SA website,
- Branch meeting agendas often include RAPs as an item for discussion and information. Copies of the Shelter SA RAP are regularly provided at key events.

Use art produced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people experiencing homelessness as a preference for a logo for the annual Homeless Connect Expo and other Shelter SA publications.

- Aboriginal artwork is included in all Homeless Connect Expo advertising including posters and showcased on the Shelter SA website. The Homeless Connect Expo is an annual event.

3. Opportunities

Develop and implement the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment strategy to share with members, stakeholders and the public.

- No written employment policy has been developed as yet. However culturally sensitive methods are implemented via informal and verbal discussions to explore employment opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Appoint at least one Aboriginal person to the Shelter SA Board.

- Steps to appoint an Aboriginal representative has commenced during 2014-2015.

Provide opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and agencies to inform Shelter SA submissions to legislation and policy review.

- Ongoing
- Aboriginal Housing and Homelessness Support Branch involved in submission to Australian Bureau of Statistics definition of Homelessness to include Aboriginal People
- Also contributed to development of our State election platform

Raise Aboriginal policy and service provision issues at meetings with other service providers, Governments and ministers.

- Discussions held with Aboriginal leaders to strengthen Shelter SA's cultural relations and promote engagement between Shelter SA and stakeholders. Meetings have been held with the following:
  - Khatija Thomas – Commissioner for Aboriginal Engagement - invited her to become more involved in Shelter SA work and collaborate on issues of mutual interest
  - Mark Waters – Reconciliation SA
  - Cheryl Axleby – Aboriginal Legal Rights Movement
  - Tauto Sainsbury – Aboriginal Campaigner
  - Olive Bennell - Director, Homelessness Strategy
  - Craig Rigney, CEO, Kornar Winmill Yunti
- Discussions held with (former) Minister for Aboriginal Affairs and Reconciliation – Ian Hunter MLC.
- Highlighting Aboriginal People's housing and homelessness needs in Election Platform in correspondence to Premier, Leader of the Opposition and Leader of the (SA) Greens.

Investigate procurement of office supplies from Aboriginal organisations.

- Artworks are primarily procured for use on the Homeless Connect Expo posters, Shelter SA Annual Reports and other promotional material. Shelter SA offices are small and supply needs minimal which means the organisation is not well suited to some of the larger distributors, but this area is always explored.
- Cultural Awareness/RAP function held at an Aboriginal run organisation Kurna Living Cultural Centre at Warriparinga .

4. Tracking Progress and Reporting

Report achievements, challenges and learning to Reconciliation Australia for inclusion in the Annual Impact Measurement Report.

- In progress
  - Aboriginal Housing Forum report provided to Minister for Social Housing and key sector heads and peak groups

Evaluate the RAP and associated activities.

- Report to Reconciliation Australia will be included as part of Shelter SA's Annual Report.

Treasurer's Report

I am pleased to present the Shelter SA Treasurer's report for the year ending 30 June 2015.

The 2015 financial year was a busy and eventful year for Shelter SA, marked by uncertainty of ongoing funding levels and funding periods. The funding contract that covered the last financial year was for a single year only, which provided challenges in forward planning and operational decision making. However, we are finalising a new funding contract for the next two and a half years from December 2015, which better allows for planning, resourcing and delivery of exceptional outcomes.

Our financial management structures are frequently reviewed, with focus on budget outcomes. At the end of the 2015 financial year the Board restructured the bookkeeping function and as a result we have budgeted for a reduction in this expense category for the 2016 financial year.

For the 2015 financial year, Shelter SA performed well against the budget, returning an operating surplus. A strong cash position has been maintained which will assist in the delivery of key projects in the new financial year.

The Financial Statements have been audited without qualification. I hereby move that the Audited Financial Statements be accepted as presented.
